

GOLF AT SEA ISLAND

From juniors just starting out to PGA champions – and everyone in between – there’s no better place for a golfer to learn and grow. With technology and facilities that reach into the future, in a setting that honors traditions of the past.

PLAY

SEASIDE

- Our signature course, in the tradition of legendary Scottish links-style courses.
- With Plantation, site of the RSM Classic, a PGA TOUR FedEx Cup event hosted by Davis Love III.
- Designed by Harry S. Colt and Charles Alison, opened in 1929 as Sea Island’s second nine-hole course; redesigned in 1999 by Tom Fazio.

Seaside Course

PLANTATION

- A parkland-by-the-sea course designed by Walter Travis, opened as Sea Island’s first nine-hole course in 1928 (the same year as The Cloister), and redesigned in 1998 by Rees Jones.
- With Seaside, site of the RSM Classic.
- Following the November 2018 RSM Classic, Plantation will be redesigned by Davis and Mark Love, opening prior to the RSM Classic in November 2019.

Driftwood Course and The Lodge at Sea Island

RETREAT

- A dramatic masterpiece highlighted by Georgia pines and native oaks.
- Originally designed by Joe Lee in the 1970s; redesigned in 2001 by Davis and Mark Love.

DRIFTWOOD

- This fun, 18-hole putting course overlooking the ocean opened in August 2018.
