

MULTIGENERATIONAL VISITS AT SEA ISLAND

Sea Island offers an extensive array of activities and dining options for gatherings large and small, with experiences geared to be enjoyed together, many of them focused on our natural setting as a barrier island. Family reunions are a specialty, with activities, events, and dining arranged on a private basis if desired.

EXPERIENCE

- Family fishing trips, perfect for little ones baiting their first line or for seasoned grandparents.
- Family Salt Marsh Nature Tours to view dolphins, shore birds, oyster beds and other marine life.
- Bingo – like no other Bingo in the world, with singing, dancing, and guests in their Sunday best.
- Birding tours and falconry, with Marsh Habitat and Wildlife Walks, Owl Prowls, and Hawk Walks with a Naturalist.
- Scenic cruises aboard the 71' yacht, Sea Island Explorer.
- Family Salt Marsh Kayaking with a Naturalist.
- Horseback riding through the marsh and on the beach.
- Sea turtle dawn patrols and night walks (May – early October).
- Sailing and paddleboarding – from the beach or Rainbow Island Water Sports Center.
- Shooting at the Sea Island Shooting School.
- Breezy bike rides on Sea Island and neighboring St. Simons Island.
- Dining at any of our nine restaurants, from casual, oceanfront to Forbes Five-Star.
- Private dinners and catered events.

STAY

Guests may stay at The Cloister or in a cottage on Sea Island, at The Lodge, adjacent to two of Sea Island's three championship golf courses, or at The Inn, on St. Simons Island. All options offer access to Sea Island amenities.

LEARN

- The National Geographic Live! series brings astronauts, Pulitzer prize-winning photographers and writers, and international explorers to Sea Island throughout the year. Each offers a special session for kids, perfect for attending as a family.
- Special programs are created each year, including Gran-Con, designed especially to help grandparents and grandchildren connect.
- Each activity, especially those which are nature-oriented, provide teaching moments, where generations experience and learn together.
